Thank you for your email, I appreciate your prompt response to my offer. Sounds like your schedule is much like mine, very busy. I would be happy to meet with you and give you my view on police issues in the city. I know it's short notice, but this Wednesday night works best for me, otherwise I would have to put it off for several weeks. I have a meeting at 6:30 in New London, and will be back to my office at 7:30 if that works for you? If the short notice doesn't work, I understand and we can set it for a later date. Thank you and I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Chief Ackley,

Thank you very much for reaching out to my Campaign Chairman Billie Bourque regarding the 2011 Citizen's Police Academy.

This program sounds like an excellent way to learn more about the inner workings of the department, and it sounds like an excellent way to meet fellow New Londoners who are concerned about public safety.

Unfortunately my teaching schedule in Boston precludes my participation as I have a PhD mandatory seminar on Monday nights until April. I also teach Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings until April. I am returned to New London Wednesday and Thursday evenings by 7pm.

From now, until mid April, I am campaigning virtually-full time excepting only my time in Boston. From April to November, I am on leave to concentrate full time on my campaign for Mayor.

As a candidate, I do not, in all honesty, fully understand the level of appropriateness in terms of me contacting you, or the department. I do not want to do anything improper in deed, or appearance.

This said, I am very interested in talking with you, at your earliest convenience. I would welcome the opportunity to learn from your insights and experience and share with you my thoughts on public safety matters.

My background in law enforcement and public safety is extensive.

In 1999 I served as an intern in the office of RI Attorney General (and former US Attorney, now US Senator, Sheldon Whitehouse). The RI AG is also the State prosecutor, if you were not aware.

In 2000, I was part of a management consulting team with NYU assigned to the NYC Department of Juvenile Justice, where we modeled a new intake processing procedure to connect at risk youth with community based organizations to reduce recidivism. I have always been, and remain, a strong supporter of community integrated policing and law enforcement.

In December of 2000, I was hired as a criminal justice/public safety policy analyst to the NYC City Council. In this position I assisted in oversight hearings and investigations of the NYPD, FDNY, Dept. of Corrections, Dept. of Probation, Dept. of Juvenile Justice, and NYC Legal Aide Society. While serving the Council, I also helped draft a bill to combat racial profiling in NYC that was signed by Mayor Guiliani on 09/06/01.

I am a survivor of the 09/11/01 attack on the World Trade Center. In the 6 months following that attack I assisted the Council in preparing for hearings related to anti-terrorism efforts in the City, and assisted in City responses to the Anthrax attacks which followed 09/11/01. I also assisted the Council in the difficult, crisis-era, transition from the Guiliani to the Bloomberg administrations. I left my position with the NYC Council in March of 2002 to return to RI and prepare for law school.

I graduated law school in 2005 and was admitted to the CT and RI Bar Associations in 2006. I have had a general practice ever since, which has included criminal defense work in New London County.

In 2006 I was elected to the Westerly Town Council and served until 2008. In the capacity I was also appointed liason for public safety and liason to the police facility building committee. The building committee completed construction on the new Town police Station on Airport Road during my tenure. Also during my tenure the Council negotiated a new police union contract utilizing outside independent contract negotiators (which I had advocated for).

As Council Public Safety liason I also participated in an internal review of the personal actions of the Police Chief, Edward Mello, relating to a domestic disturbance. I fully concurred with the findings (found by an independent retired US Marshall) that the Chief acted properly, and I gave him full public support.

After leaving the Council in 2008, I have continued to study advanced public safety theories and techniques as part of my PhD program in Law, Policy & Society at Northeastern University.

My campaign has released a platform entitled "A Vision for New London" which includes an detailed public safety section. You may access a .pdf copy at www.finizioformayor.com

Please contact me at your convenience if you think it not innappropriate that we meet.

Again, thank you for reaching out to me, and my campaign.

Peg,

7:30 sounds fine! I will meet you at your office at Police Headquarters.

Look forward to it. I will need to leave by 8:45/9pm to make another appointment in Waterford at 9:30.

See you then,

Chief,

Thank you so much for taking the time to meet with me. I greatly enjoyed it and look forward to speaking with you further and learning more about the department.

It is safe for me to say that I believe your reform efforts are right on the mark. As you might say in "cop-talk", it is just time to "call in some back up". ;)

Talk again soon,

-DJF

Chief,

My apologies for the late notice, but as The Day ran our newsbrief very late, I wanted to extend a personal invite to the public safety town hall meeting I am hosting tommorrow from 1-3pm at New London Pizza on Bank Street.

I again am sorry for the late notice.

Just a quick update. Rumor has it there are photos of you and I meeting and socializing to plan Buscetto's demise. Since you and I both know that is not true, I guess we have nothing to worry about, but at the same time I do not want to do anything that will cause you any issues; therefore I would like to put off dinner until after the election. Stay strong and don't underestimate the good ol' boy system in New London.

I will be away (family/friend time in the Outer Banks) next week, but will contact you once I get back and check the temperature of New London to determine what will be best. I appreciate your offer and will be in touch.
