Dear Mr. Carter:

I am writing in regard to your pending application for a Connecticut Educator Certificate endorsed for superintendent of schools (endorsement #093).

The Bureau of Educator Standards and Certification has been made aware that the New London Board of Education is currently conducting an investigation regarding many allegations that have been raised in recent weeks. In light of these developments, this office has determined that we will defer the processing of your pending application for superintendent until such time as the New London Board of Education completes its investigation. At that time, we may move forward with our review of your pending application.

This communication supercedes any previous communication you may have previously received from this office.

If you have any questions, please contact me via email at teacher.cert@ct.gov or in writing at the postal address listed below.

Sincerely,
